

CIVIL AIR PATROL – UNIFORM EQUIVALENCE (based on CAPM 39-1, Table 1.1)

Category	USAF STYLE	CORPORATE STYLE
Service Dress & Service Uniforms	Mess Dress (4.1.1, 4.1.2, 4.1.3) and Cadet Semi-Formal (4.1.4) 	Corporate Semi-Formal Uniform (4.2.1, 4.2.2)
	USAF Style Service Dress ("Class A") (4.1.5, 4.1.6, 4.1.7, 4.1.8) 	Corporate Service Dress Uniform (4.2.3, 4.2.4)
	Blue Service Uniform ("Class B") (4.1.9, 4.1.10)  Includes long-sleeve w/tie variants	Aviator Shirt Uniform (4.2.5, 4.2.6)  Includes long-sleeve w/tie variants
	The Blue Service Uniform ("Class B") or Aviator Shirt Uniform are the minimum basic uniforms required of all members (1.2.1)
Working & Utility Uniforms	Battle Dress or Airman Battle Uniform (5.1.1 & CAP/CC ABU memo) 	CAP Corporate Working Uniform (5.2.2)   Corporate Field Uniform (5.2.1)
	USAF-style Flight Duty Uniform (8.2) 	Corporate Flight Duty Uniform (8.3)

This chart is intended to provide members with general equivalents between USAF and Corporate Uniforms in each uniform category. Uniform wear patterns, accoutrements, hats, outer garments, etc. are not represented here. See the appropriate paragraphs in CAPM 39-1 for specific wear information for that uniform.

 Per Table 1-1: "The Corporate Working uniform may be worn in a flying, field or mission setting when USAF-style Class B or Aviator Shirt would be worn." This does not mean that the Corporate Working Uniform is the equivalent of USAF-style Class B or Aviator Shirt uniforms for the purposes of the minimum uniform.