13 MARCH 2009

Dear Parents,

In early February, I accepted the position of Gotham Composite Squadron's Deputy Commander for Cadets, replacing Lt Col John Wayne. I am extremely excited to have assumed this new position and about the future of the cadet program in our unit.

As we begin 2009, I must say, that 2008 was quite an amazing year for our squadron. Over the last year we nearly doubled our active cadet membership, had nearly three quarters of our cadets attend encampment and began to rebuild our emergency services program. I hope to continue this momentum as the year continues.

Over the next few months, I hope that you notice more positive change, including; more weekend activity offerings, more orientation flights, improved scheduling and better communication with both our cadets and you, the parents.

I hope to improve our communication with you through a monthly update, which will include a schedule for the upcoming month, announcements about upcoming activities, scholarship opportunities and other important information and deadlines.

In addition, I would like to invite you to a question and answer session on April 30, 2009. This session will start at 8:00 p.m. and last approximately one hour. During this time, we will provide an update on the cadet program and give you an idea of what our future plans are. We will also provide an opportunity for any questions, comments and concerns you may have. I highly encourage you to attend.

Lastly, I would like to thank you all for your continued support of your cadet. Without your support your cadets would not be able to accomplish all that they do.

I look forward to another successful year and seeing you all again. In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.
